DREAMING OF INDIA
A CULTURAL BLOCK PARTY
Thursday, July 16, 2009

Join us for a colorful evening inspired by the culture of India! On Thursday, July 16 come to CAFAM to tantalize your senses with an Indian dinner, dance performances, music, and vibrant artworks from the Mithila region. Spend a warm summer evening in CAFAM's courtyard with family and friends at this vibrant event whose proceeds go to benefit the museum's vibrant cultural programming. Door open at 6:30pm and the party doesn't stop until 9:30pm!

Throughout the evening Bollywood films will be playing and traditional Indian dance performances will take place. A henna artist will be available to adorn your body with a henna tattoo, and a fragrant buffet-style dinner of Indian sweets and savory will satisfy your stomach. Numerous treasures will be raffled off throughout the evening and a prize will be awarded to the best dressed! Come in your best sari and join the party! Jai ho!
