

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Sonja Cendak, Exhibitions and Publicity
T. 323.937.4230 x25 / sonja@cafam.org

SHOP FOR THE HOLIDAYS WITH A HUMAN TOUCH!
GLOBAL BAZAAR@CAFAM
Saturday, December 6, 2008 / 10am – 5pm

Just in time for the holiday season, the inaugural GLOBAL BAZAAR@CAFAM offers discerning shoppers an opportunity to find unique, handmade gifts from around the world, all in one stop. Taking place on Saturday, December 6 from 10am to 5pm in CAFAM's intimate courtyard, the Global Bazaar features carefully selected vendors that offer the best in handmade, fair trade, and artisan-produced objects, jewelry, textiles, home wares and more.

Cruise through the Global Bazaar@CAFAM to find: local pottery studios, including the maker of the wildly popular Buddha cats; Nepalese crafts; Handmade textiles from Thailand; Silver jewelry from Mexico; and folk art from Oaxaca, Africa, and Australia, to name but a few. And of course, CAFAM's Museum Shop will be open with an even further array of distinctive worldly gifts for everyone on your holiday list.

Gift your friends and family (and yourself!) with presents that please the eye and warm the soul, knowing that your purchases support artisans and the legacy of fine craft around the world. Also, CAFAM Members receive a 20% discount off their purchases that day and through December 24th, as part of Member's Appreciation! Don't forget the gift that gives all year long, a CAFAM Gift Membership provides access to outstanding exhibitions, programming, and discounts.

Kick off the holiday season with the GLOBAL BAZAAR@CAFAM on Saturday, December 6! For further information, please contact pr@cafam.org or phone (323) 937 4230 x22.

